

UNIVERSAL PRECAUTIONS QUIZ

True or False

1. “Universal Precautions are recommended practices used to minimize the risk of exposure to infectious diseases and pathogens (germs) carried in blood and bodily fluids”.
2. Proper Handwashing Protocol:

You must submerge your hands under water for at least 60 seconds

To save water, always turn off the water while scrubbing hands with soap

Apply water to your hands prior to applying soap.
3. Influenza is similar to the flu, but always requires hospitalization.

Fill in the blanks:

4. Finish this statement:

Bloodborne pathogens are infectious _____ in blood that can cause _____ in people.
5. When is Flu/Respiratory Virus Season? _____ thru _____
6. List 4 examples of how we can be exposed to pathogens:

7. Recommendation is that anyone over _____ of age get the influenza vaccine every year.

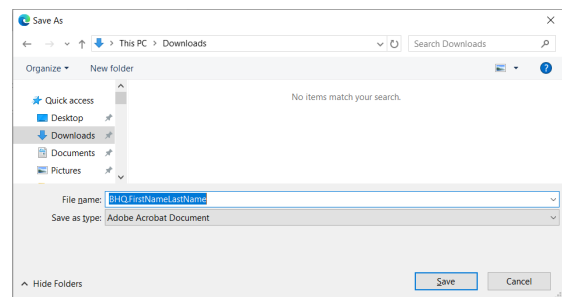

Multiple Choice:

8. Which are examples of bloodborne pathogens:
 - a. Hepatitis B
 - b. Head-Cold
 - c. HIV
 - d. Hepatitis C
 - e. Tuberculosis
 - f. Migraine

9. Which of the following patterns requires the staff to reflect of the client’s behavior and to consider a positive alternative behavior when setting limits with the client?
 - a. Interrupt and redirect pattern
 - b. When and then pattern
 - c. If and then pattern
 - d. All the above

To save and return this test:

1. Click on the “Save As” icon at the top of the s
2. A “Save As” file window will appear. In “File Name” type “UPQ” and your first and last name.
For example: UPQKarinDolph
3. Click “Save”
4. Send via email to “coordinators@vitalcare.us”

- THANK YOU